

COMPETING FOR A CAUSE

An overview of three pairings for this year's club competition to increase donations for the Johnson County Christmas Bureau can drive

“ NOT ONLY IS the can drive supporting a good cause, but the band is just better than the orchestra, and we really want to prove that in one way or another.

CHARLIE MUEHLBERGER
 SENIOR
 DRUM MAJOR

BAND VS

ORCHESTRA

“ WE'RE THE ONLY two instrumental classes, so there's always competition between which one's better, who's better, who sounds better, who's cooler? It's all pretty irrelevant, but it makes for fun competition.

OSCAR CURCHIN
 VIOLINIST

SHARE VS

“ WE'RE GOING TO take all the cereal boxes that we raised from the dodgeball tournament and put them on our table to have way more than Pep Club. We're going to win.

BLAKE HANSON
 SENIOR
 SHARE EXEC

PEP CLUB

“ I WANT PEP Club to beat SHARE in the can drive because SHARE's whole thing is community service. It would be kind of funny to beat them at their own game.

CAROLINE REISER
 SENIOR
 PEP EXEC

“ CHOIR IS SUCH a good community where people really bond and make great friends. We deserve to win and get more recognition.

AUDREY APPRILL
 SENIOR
 ALTO

CHOIR

VS THEATRE

“ I'M IN BOTH theatre and choir, but theatre is my life because you can take singing [in choir], but you can also take singing to the stage and do a lot more with it through theatre.

APOLLO WEBER
 JUNIOR
 CREW CHIEF
