

by the NUMBERS

Hear from students and see statistics about the diversity breakdown of East

SCAN ME WEBSITE

Go online to explore racial enrollment breakdowns of other high schools in the U.S. to compare to East

ISHYA
bhargava
 JUNIOR INDIAN

WE JUST CELEBRATED Diwali, the festival of lights and good over evil. This year it was on Nov. 12, and we had friends over, dressed up in traditional clothes, ate food and then went to temple on the actual day of.

KELSEY
stroud
 JUNIOR
 PART NATIVE AMERICAN

PEOPLE DON'T HAVE to outwardly look a certain stereotype or how you expect them to look to be their ethnicity. For a while I was a blonde and if I said I'm Native American, people would say "No you're not." But then on the opposite side people would say "You're so tan, did you get a spray tan?" Just because I am a little more tan than most of my friends."

EVA
galicia
 SENIOR LATINA

IN THE ART exhibit at East, we have been planning a Latino art exhibit so that East can experience more of our culture. That's a positive way East has helped a lot of our community be recognized and shown throughout the school.

