“ EMMA CHALK
ART TEACHER

IT GIVES [STUDENTS] a real opportunity to get into a gallery space and see artwork in a collection that's been curated based on a theme or on a communal aspect, which you don't necessarily see all that much in a classroom setting.

IT'S JUST THE ultimate show of love for the traditions of East, and just how much we love our school. I think it just really brings everyone together, and it's for the greater good.

CRAWFORD ART GALLERY

“ MADIE HUDON
SENIOR

MY FIRST FREQUENT Friday was Libby McShane's, and I remember coming in and I was really, really nervous to audition for it, but I feel like the directors did a really great job of calming the freshmen down and just being like 'give it your all, if it happens it happens.'
