Students explain conspiracy theories they believe to be true

SLOANE CLARK
FRESHMAN

Helen Keller

THEORY:

Helen Keller isn't real or wasn't blind and deaf.

REASONING:

She couldn't have flown a plane or attended regular university.

“WITHOUT SEEING OR hearing, how did she even learn to speak or there's no way she could've learned sign language.”

Project Abigail

TEAGAN O'BRIEN
SOPHOMORE

“WE DON'T KNOW people much about Area 51, so I think it could totally be true.”

DESCRIPTION:

During the Cold War, a scientist at Area 51 conducted experiments on his daughter, Abigail, in hopes of creating a super soldier for the war. It ended up failing, leaving Abigail in an alien-like shape and she is said to lurk in the area.

Queen Elizabeth

ADDI HALL
SENIOR

THEORY:

Queen Elizabeth the First was actually a man

REASONING:

- She had no kids which disrupted the lineage for the English throne
- She had a long slender figure

“IT'S FASCINATING that if a woman doesn't adhere to societal standards at a particular time, they can be accused of being a man.”
